Notice for Choir Directors – The Choirs Eisteddfod in Canberra is a well-run, friendly and highly regarded choral competition, with superb auditoriums to perform in, seating over 1,000 in Llewellyn Hall, and respected choral musicians as adjudicators.

All school choirs sections are non-competitive. Each group will receive a gold, silver, or bronze attainment trophy.

This year there will be no set piece for any section.

The Australian Choral Challenge is open to all choirs.

Entry will be online, <http://www.stardom.com.au>

Event Directors: Ben Green, Simon Best, Di Miley and Roanne Darling

Adjudicator: Jenny Mathers

Workshops with Jenny Mathers are available

Please note that once entries have been received a full timetable will be sent to entrants.

Additional Rules for Choir Division

Late entries will be accepted at the discretion of the event director(s).

Entry Fees will only be refunded if Choirs cannot be included or if a section does not go ahead because of lack of numbers.

When the draft timetable for the event is finalised, choir directors will receive an information pack which will require, amongst other things, scores to be submitted approximately 4 weeks prior to the event. All scores require clearly marked bar numbers and must be complete, legible and in good condition. The draft timetable and information pack will be distributed in mid July; forms should be returned with a copy of the conductor's score by Friday 10 August 2018 – this can be done electronically or in print. One copy must be provided for all sections.

Choirs are expected to present a well-contrasted program that presents different styles and genres of music to demonstrate the choir's choral flexibility. For example, the choir should not sing two pieces which are similar in style and speed. The same piece cannot be performed in more than one section.

A time limit has been allocated in each section and choir directors are asked to ensure that their program does not exceed this limit. Official timing will commence from the beginning of the first piece and conclude at the end of the last piece, whether sung or played on the piano. A bell will be rung prior to commencing your performance and in between pieces.

The schedule will outline whether choirs will be allocated a rehearsal room for warm-up immediately before going on stage.

Conductors must not assist their choirs by singing during their choir's performance. Students taking part in school choirs must attend the school they represent unless otherwise stated. Age restriction may be checked. Community choir members must be recognized or financial members of the choir.

Admission tickets for Choir Members are not required for the section for which the choir has entered. All accompanying personnel must have a ticket, other than those directly supervising the Friday choirs. Tickets will be available for purchase online prior to the event (through the Eisteddfod website) and on the day. Discounts apply for pre-purchase.

The Australian National Eisteddfod General Rules and Conditions appearing on the ANES website or on the online entry system also apply to this event.

2018 CHOIRS EISTEDDFOD

- Friday 17 and Saturday 18 August 2018
- Llewellyn Hall (ANU School of Music) and Canberra Girls Grammar School Hall

Entries close: 30 June 2018

Event Directors: Ben Green, Simon Best, Di Miley and Roanne Darling

Adjudicator: Jenny Mathers

Special Notices

Music

Music for adjudicators must be complete in every respect, legible and in good condition, with each bar numbered. The same piece cannot be performed in multiple sections. See also copyright notice below.

Time Limits

Time limits will be enforced. Applications for extensions must be made well in advance to the Event Directors.

Entries

Entries are made through the online Stardom system (<http://www.stardom.com.au>)
Entry fees are to be submitted with the entry form.
GST is NOT APPLICABLE to entry fees.

Adjudication

- The adjudicator has the right to re-classify an entrant.
- Each entrant will receive a written adjudication report and a CD/digital recording of verbal adjudication comments over the performance (on separate tracks).
- Adjudication in competitive sections will be based on ranking entrants (e.g. 1st, 2nd places).
- In non-competitive sections adjudication will be based on attainment levels (Gold, Silver and Bronze). These levels are in no way comparative (e.g. each group in a section could be awarded the same attainment level), and reflect an overall judgement on the performance (and hence may not be directly related to marks on specific criteria).

Prizes

Prizes offered may be altered depending on entry numbers, in accordance with the General Rules and Conditions of Entry.

Copyright

The Australian National Eisteddfod Society Inc. (ANES) holds an Australian Performing Rights Association (APRA) licence that covers the public performance of all copyright musical works at this event. The licence fee is based on a per entry rate of 90c (ex GST), and has been included in the entry fee for performers.

ANES also has an arrangement with the Australian Mechanical Copyright Owners Society (AMCOS) that allows entrants to photocopy an original piece of sheet music for adjudicators. An entrant may supply the adjudicator with an unlicensed copy of the piece provided that (a) the original is used by the entrant for performance or held at the venue for inspection and (b) the Executive Committee or its delegate destroys the copy immediately after the adjudication.

Entrants must perform from original published editions of music, unless prior permission has been obtained from the copyright owner.

General Rules and Conditions, appearing at the back of this Event Guide, apply to this Event.

Adjudicator Biography – Jenny Mathers

Jenny Mathers started as Director of Music at Korowa Anglican Girls' School in 2018, having been Head of Music at St. Catherine's School, Toorak, Melbourne, Australia for nine years. She has always taken a varied classroom load, across both the Primary and Secondary School sectors. She enjoys many forms of music making, including playing the clarinet (L.Mus.A), accompanying her students on the piano (A.Mus.A), and singing in and conducting choirs (A.Mus.A Voice). Jenny is passionate about using imagery in all forms of her teaching and the 'discovery' of the work of Rudolph von Laban when she completed her Masters of Music Education at Florida State University in 1997 was life-changing. She uses this knowledge whenever she teachers conducting, such as at the ACCET Summer School or short courses for the University of Melbourne Graduate program. Jenny has spent many years on committees for ACCET, ABODA (Australian Band and Orchestral Directors Association) and ANCA, having been the Victorian Branch treasurer for 11 years, and now, after a break for family leave, the Vice-President of this organization.

Jenny was convener of the first Sounds Great! conference in 2003 and has enjoyed continued involvement with the organization of this conference, as well as planning for the 2015 Choralfest in Melbourne.

Jenny adjudicated Instrumental, Choral and Vocal sections in Burnie, Tasmania in 2014 and the Choral Sections at the Waverley Eisteddfod in 2015. She adjudicated both the Boroondara and Mildura Choral Eisteddfods in 2016 and a number of School House events in 2017.

Workshops with Jenny Mathers

Following the Choirs event, workshops with Jenny Mathers will be available on Sunday 19 August at Canberra Girls Grammar School. The cost of these one-hour workshops will be $100. If you are interested please contact Simon (simon@nationaleisteddfod.org.au)

General rules and conditions of entry

All entrants participate according to these rules and conditions and any special conditions as may apply to individual divisions or events.

GENERAL

1. Entries must be submitted in the Stardom system (<http://www.stardom.com.au>) and accompanied by full fees or they will not be processed. Responsibility for correct entry rests with the entrant.
2. The Eisteddfod reserves the right to:
 - (a) refuse an entry;
 - (b) cancel a section (e.g. due to lack of entries);
 - (c) vary the prizes (e.g. when insufficient entries perform);
 - (d) demand proof of age of an entrant in an age section, or proof of amateur or professional status, or
 - (e) combine sections together.
3. An entrant may only enter a particular section once, except where specifically stated otherwise. The name of the partner(s) in a duo, lieder or ensemble must be included on the entry form, except for bands, orchestras, choirs and ensembles of six or more players.
4. No person may enter under a name other than his or her own. Entries are not transferable from one person to another.
5. Refunds of entry fees will be made to an entrant only if a section has been cancelled by the Eisteddfod.
6. One conductor may conduct any number of groups, and one director may present any number of groups. Age limits do not apply to conductors.
7. Entrants at Eisteddfod functions take part at their own risk. The Society does not accept responsibility for any accident or personal loss or injury, however caused.
8. Prizes, reports and original material not collected at the conclusion of the relevant division will be available for collection by arrangement with an Event Director.
9. Age, where specified for any section, shall be the age on the first day of competition of the division in which the entry is made.
10. Any entrant wishing to withdraw from a section must notify the Eisteddfod as soon as possible.
11. Late entries may be accepted at the discretion of the Eisteddfod.
12. The Australian National Eisteddfod Society will not be liable for any copyright infringement relating to the submission of photocopies. Entrants should be aware of the rules of copyright (see section 30 headed 'Copyright' below).
13. The Society reserves the right to record, film, broadcast, telecast, videotape or photograph any entrant, item or event in the Eisteddfod without notification, unless the entrant advises the Eisteddfod in advance their photo is not to be shared. Any such photograph, recording or broadcast may be used at the Eisteddfod's discretion for publicity or promotional purposes, but shall not necessarily constitute an endorsement of any entrants, and no remuneration or compensation whatsoever shall be attributable to any entrants so featured.
14. A high standard of behaviour is expected from all entrants and spectators. Participants and supporters must comply with the Code of Conduct.
15. Any mechanical rights which should be obtained in respect of recordings for performance is the responsibility of the performer. The Eisteddfod holds a licence issued by APRA for the live performance of published music.
16. An entrant, who during the three months preceding the opening date of the division in which he or she has entered, has been taught, coached or advised by the appointed Adjudicator of the division, shall not be eligible to compete in that division of the Eisteddfod.
17. Failure to comply with any of the foregoing rules and conditions may result in disqualification and withholding of prizes. The decision of the Eisteddfod in all questions or disputes arising out of, or not provided for, by these rules and regulations shall be final. All entries are received on this condition and in the spirit of friendly competition upon which the Australian National Eisteddfod is based, and no dispute shall become the subject of any appeal at law.

PERFORMANCE

18. Entrants should pay particular attention to neatness of appearance when appearing on stage, as this may be taken into consideration by the Adjudicator.
19. (a) No entrant may render the same item in more than one section of the Eisteddfod except where otherwise specified.
(b) No entrant, having won a section, may render the same item in the following year.
20. A copy of the music or other material to be performed in "own choice" events MUST be provided for the Adjudicator and Accompanist, unless it is a piece set by the Eisteddfod. The onus of choosing the right material for the event rests with the entrant. Suitability and degree of difficulty will be taken into consideration by the Adjudicator. The Eisteddfod does not accept responsibility for the loss of music or other material. In accordance with Copyright law, photocopies and other texts will be destroyed following the event.
21. Time limits set out in the Syllabus must be adhered to. Entrants who exceed the time limit may have marks deducted or be disqualified by the Adjudicator.
22. A teacher shall not be allowed on stage except in the capacity of an official, accompanist or conductor.
23. Prompting or assistance of any kind shall not be given to any entrant, except by the Adjudicator, who may take any contravention of this Rule into consideration in his or her adjudication.
24. Communication with the Adjudicator by entrants, teachers or other interested parties (other than in an official capacity) during a section is strictly prohibited, and the Eisteddfod reserves the right to disqualify an entrant for any breach of this rule.

25. The Adjudicator's decision shall be final.
26. Any protest shall be made in writing to the Eisteddfod within 24 hours of the completion of the relevant section. A protest can only be made by an entrant, or the entrant's teacher or parent. The decision of the Eisteddfod shall be final.
27. A copy of the Adjudicator's report will be made available free of charge at the end of each section.
28. Entrants shall not practise in the performing space for their division on the division's competition days.

PRIZES

29. The Eisteddfod comprises competitive and non-competitive sections. The prize or award for each section is outlined in the relevant Syllabus and Stardom section description. All prizes, including highly commended, are at the discretion of the Adjudicator. In exceptional circumstances the adjudicator may award a prize jointly to more than 1 competitor with a total monetary value not exceeding the specified prize amount.

COPYRIGHT

30. The Australian National Eisteddfod Society Inc. holds an Australian Performing Rights Association (APRA) licence. An entrant may supply the adjudicator with an unlicensed copy of the piece providing that (a) the original is used by the entrant for the performance or held at the venue for inspection and (b) the Eisteddfod or its delegate destroys the copy immediately after the event.
