ACT GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCE FUNDING CERTAINTY FOR AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL EISTEDDFOD AT SUCCESSFUL BANDS & ORCHESTRAS

Ongoing funding for the Australian National Eisteddfod has been confirmed as part of today's ACT Budget, following a successful Bands & Orchestras event last weekend.

Minister for the Arts and Cultural Events, Gordon Ramsay MLA announced that the ACT Government will commit $15,000 in each of the next three years to fund the Australian National Eisteddfod. This is part of its ongoing commitment to the development and presentation of artistically exciting programs that provide community access to the arts. The announcement, made during the Open Concert and Brass Band Sections on Friday night, was welcomed by the President of the Australian National Eisteddfod Sylvia Tulloch. "As well as providing certainty for the next three years, this funding will ensure that school and community bands, orchestras and choirs can access first class performance venues in the ACT" she said.

The Bands and Orchestra's event, which concluded today, featured several outstanding performances by both school and community groups. The Ginninderra Wind Orchestra won the Open A Grade Concert Bands section, its jazz band, Twilight Jazz, also took out the Open A Grade Jazz Band section.

Other winners included Canberra Brass (Open A Grade Brass Band). James McCusker Orchestra (Open Orchestras), Hunter School of the Performing Arts String Orchestra (Open String Orchestras) and Precision Percussion Ensemble (Open Ensembles).

The inclusive nature of the Eisteddfod includes several sections that are non-competitive, including school and age-based sections. The following were awarded – 2 platinum awards for outstanding performance (Lyneham High School Year 10 Concert Band and Hunter School of the Performing Arts String Orchestra) 22 gold, 34 silver, 8 bronze and 2 participation awards.

Experienced adjudicator Warwick Tyrrell, from Sydney, provided positive feedback to all groups and was impressed by the high standard of performances in the ACT.

Other Eisteddfod events (Singing, Piano, Choirs and Speech & Drama) will take place in August and September.
