Special Notices

Selecting sections

- Conductors are to select the section for their band where more than one exists (e.g. 'A', 'B' or 'C' Grade).
- As a general guide for non-competitive sections: repertoire with a Publisher grading of Level 2.5 or lower, or average playing experience of less than 3 years, is suitable for 'B' rather than 'A' grade. 'C' grade is intended for beginning or early-development groups.
- The Adjudicator has the right to re-classify a group.

Structure of Bands & Orchestras program

The program structure for 2020 will be similar to previous years. One change is that Primary School Bands will be held on Thursday May 21.

It is:

- Thursday May 21, morning – Primary School Bands
- Thursday May 21, late afternoon and evening – Jazz Bands
- Friday May 22, evening – Open Concert Bands and Open Brass Bands
- Saturday May 23, morning – Concert Bands (16 Years & Under and 18 Years & Under)
- Saturday May 23, afternoon – Orchestras and Instrumental Ensembles
- Sunday May 24 – High School Bands

This program is subject to change depending on entry numbers and logistics.

Members of Bands and Orchestras

Except with the express permission in writing of the Event Directors of the Bands and Orchestras Division:

- a) all members of a school band or orchestra must be enrolled as students of that/those school/s; or
- b) all members of a non-school band or orchestra must be normal financial members (having paid an annual membership fee) of that band or orchestra or, if that band or orchestra does not have financial members, must have been playing regularly with that band or orchestra since 1 March 2020
- c) where a band or orchestra has entered a section with an age limit all players must not exceed that age limit. Applications for exemption can be made where the age limit of no more than 2 players exceeds the age limit by no more than 12 months. No further exemptions will be granted.
An entrant not complying with this rule may be disqualified.

ACT High School Bands Sections

The ACT High School Bands Sections are open to all schools within the ACT, encompassing Years 7-12.

Information Form Packs

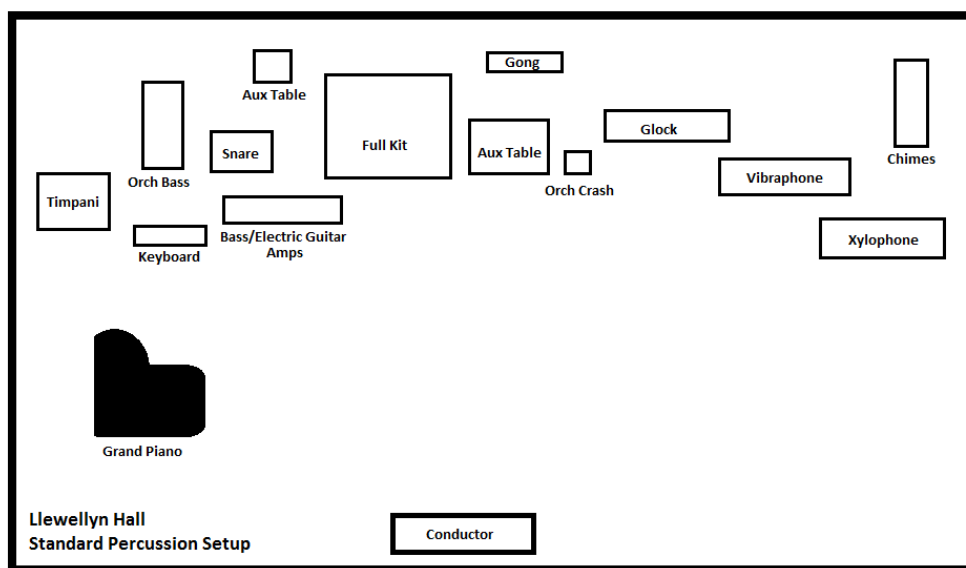

A package of information forms for completion will be distributed to entrants via email approximately one (1) month before the event. This includes details of piece/s to be performed. This information must be submitted no later than Thursday 14 May.

Music

Music for adjudicators must be complete in every respect, legible and in good condition, with each bar numbered. See also copyright notice below. This music must be submitted no later than Thursday 14 May. Conductor's scores must be provided in print (the Copyright exemption which allows copies for adjudicators only covers print photocopies and does not extend to electronic documents).

Stage plans and equipment

Entrants must complete a stage plan, to be submitted by Thursday 14 May. A template will be provided with the information pack. A standard stage set-up for percussion equipment will be used for all sections at Llewellyn Hall other than Open age sections. A copy of the standard stage plan for Llewellyn Hall is below. Please note that minor movements of equipment will be permitted however significant shifting of equipment from one side of the stage to the other will not be permitted.

The Jazz Bands venue will be set up with 3 rows of risers for brass and woodwind with percussion, keyboard, guitars and amplifiers positioned to the right of the risers.

Shared percussion equipment, including amplifiers and keyboard will be provided at all venues. Entrants will be expected to use this shared equipment; this will help ensure smooth transition between groups on stage. A full list of equipment provided at each venue is included on Page 7.

Time Limits

Time limits will be enforced.

Applications for extensions must be made well in advance to the Convenors.

Entries

Entries are made through the online Stardom system (<http://www.stardom.com.au>)

Entry fees are to be submitted with the entry form.

GST is NOT APPLICABLE to entry fees.

Adjudication

- The adjudicator has the right to re-classify an entrant.
- Each entrant will receive a USB recording with verbal adjudication comments over the performance (on separate tracks) and a written adjudication report.
- Adjudication in competitive sections will be based on ranking entrants (e.g. 1st, 2nd places).
- In non-competitive sections adjudication will be based on attainment levels (Gold, Silver and Bronze). These levels are in no way comparative (e.g. each group in a section could be awarded the same attainment level), and reflect an overall judgement on the performance (and hence may not be directly related to marks on specific criteria).

- An adjudication only option is available for each section; this allows groups to perform and receive feedback from the adjudicator, without being rated. Groups choosing this option will receive a participation trophy.

Prizes

Prizes for competitive sections are generally in the form of vouchers, not cash.

Prizes offered may be altered depending on entry numbers, in accordance with the General Rules and Conditions of Entry.

Copyright

The Australian National Eisteddfod Society Inc. (ANES) holds an Australian Performing Rights Association (APRA) licence that covers the public performance of all copyright musical works at this event. The licence fee is based on a per entry rate, and has been included in the entry fee for performers.

ANES also has an arrangement with the Australian Mechanical Copyright Owners Society (AMCOS) that allows entrants to photocopy an original piece of sheet music for adjudicators. An entrant may supply the adjudicator with an unlicensed copy of the piece provided that (a) the original is used by the entrant for performance or held at the venue for inspection and (b) the Executive Committee or its delegate destroys the copy immediately after the adjudication.

Entrants must perform from original published editions of music, unless prior permission has been obtained from the copyright owner.

General Rules and Conditions, appearing at the back of this Syllabus, apply to this Division.

Adjudicator Biography

Greg Aitken (Concert, Jazz and Brass Bands, Orchestras and Instrumental Ensembles)

Greg Aitken is well known throughout Australia as a Brass Player, Conductor, Educator, Adjudicator, Clinician and the owner of the music store - Brass Music Specialists in Queensland.

As an Adjudicator he has judged in numerous Eisteddfods and competitions mainly in Queensland but also in most States of Australia.

He has recently resigned as Head of Brass at the Queensland Conservatorium following 27 years of Tertiary teaching. Greg has performed with the Queensland, Adelaide and Tasmanian Symphony Orchestras and has worked extensively in the orchestra pit for many professional touring musical productions.

Chamber music is also one of his passions and he is a founding member of the acclaimed Brass Quintet – BoB (Best of Brass) who performed for Musica Viva in their 'in schools' program for many years, touring across Australia and also Hong Kong.

Greg is a life member of the Brisbane Brass Music Association and the Australian Trombone Association.

Eileen Currie (Primary School Bands)

Eileen Currie is a Canberra-based music educator and recently retired secondary school music teacher. Eileen learned piano from an early age and was awarded a scholarship to study piano with Lillian Tan at the Canberra School of Music. She also studied violin as a student at Melrose High School, joining the flourishing school orchestra, and took part in school productions, choirs and madrigal groups. A highlight from this time was travelling to Sydney with the Melrose High School Orchestra to perform at the Sydney Opera House in its opening year.

Eileen graduated with a Bachelor of Education, completing a double major in Music. She taught at Narrabundah College, Calwell High School, and then spent twelve years at Canberra High School. At Canberra High School, she established a very successful band program, which grew from just a few students in 2007 to almost 200 students at the time of her retirement. In addition to her work with the band program, Eileen taught classroom music, coordinated the school's string ensemble and led the Arts and Languages Faculty at the school. Eileen's leadership and commitment were acknowledged in 2014 with the awarding of a Certificate of Excellence by the Australian Council for Educational Leaders. In 2015, she received an 'A Day Made Better Teaching Award', having been nominated by students and parents from Canberra High School.

2. The Eisteddfod reserves the right to:
 - (a) refuse an entry;
 - (b) cancel a section (e.g. due to lack of entries);
 - (c) vary the prizes (e.g. when insufficient entries perform);
 - (d) demand proof of age of an entrant in an age section, or proof of amateur or professional status, or
 - (e) combine sections together.
3. An entrant may only enter a particular section once, except where specifically stated otherwise. The name of the partner(s) in a duo, lieder or ensemble must be included on the entry form, except for bands, orchestras, choirs and ensembles of six or more players.
4. No person may enter under a name other than his or her own. Entries are not transferable from one person to another.
5. Refunds of entry fees will be made to an entrant only if a section has been cancelled by the Eisteddfod.
6. One conductor may conduct any number of groups, and one director may present any number of groups. Age limits do not apply to conductors.
7. Entrants at Eisteddfod functions take part at their own risk. The Society does not accept responsibility for any accident or personal loss or injury, however caused.
8. Prizes, reports and original material not collected at the conclusion of the relevant division will be available for collection by arrangement with an Event Director.
9. Age, where specified for any section, shall be the age on the first day of competition of the division in which the entry is made.

14. Recording of performances on video is not permitted. Photography is permitted so long as a flash is not used.
15. A high standard of behaviour is expected from all entrants and spectators. Participants and supporters must comply with the Code of Conduct.

The Eisteddfod does not accept responsibility for the loss of music or other material. In accordance with Copyright law, photocopies and other texts will be destroyed following the event.
