Additional Awards

Ann Thompson Memorial Award

- 7 to 12 years - $200
- 13 to 16 years - $200

Ann was a highly respected piano teacher here in Canberra and recently passed away. To acknowledge Ann's commitment to teaching, her former students sponsor an ongoing award for students who show potential in the early years of their learning. The award will be a certificate and a financial contribution to tuition costs and will be made each year in memory of Ann.

Doris Rowland Excellence Award – 18 years and under Sections - $200

This award is in the memory of the much loved and former director of the Piano Eisteddfod, Mrs Doris Rowland. The special award will be made at the adjudicator's discretion. To qualify for the award competitors must enter for, and play in, at least two sections 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186 and 187.

Restricted Sections for Canberra based students, Sections P084, P104 and P123.

The section will be Own Choice for students who reside and study in Canberra and who have not won a first place in the Australian National Eisteddfod.

Once the number of entrants is known, the final times of the sections will be published in the program - available on the website, www.nationaleisteddfod.com.au on or about the 12 August.

Note: All sections, including the Final of the Open Section will be held at the Ainslie Arts Centre.

Prize money to be confirmed – please check final program.

Special Notices

A copy of the music must be provided at least 15 minutes prior to the commencement of the section entered.

The competitor number (as listed in the program), title and composer of the selected piece must be written at the top of the copy of the music.

All sections including the Final of the Open Sections will be held at the Ainslie Arts Centre.

All Open sections will be held on Sunday, 22 August 2021.

Entry and fee payment will only be accepted on line. Please see entry form link on the website, <http://www.stardom.com.au>

Photography will only be permitted by the parents of the performer or by agreement with the Event Director.

Piano Solo means performance on a piano by a single performer with no accompaniment, recorded or live. Piano Duet means performance by two people on a single instrument without any accompaniment, recorded or live.

Only one piece of music per performance – a combination of pieces to complete the time limit is not permitted.

No entrant may render the same item in more than one section of the Eisteddfod and,

No entrant, having won a section, may render the same item in the following year.

“Restricted” means that the section is open to those who have never won a first place in any Piano Solo section in any previous Australian National Eisteddfod.

Repeats are optional.

Time limits must be observed. See General Rules and Conditions of Entry No.22.

Please observe Copyright Law as set out below.

Entrants should pay particular attention to neatness of appearance when appearing on stage, as this may be taken into consideration by the Adjudicator.

Once the number of entrants is known, the final times of the sections will be published in the program - available on the website, www.nationaleisteddfod.com.au on or about the 12 August.

The Australian National Piano Eisteddfod is regarded by students and teachers alike as a prestigious and independent competition that offers students of all ages an opportunity to perform here in Canberra before the Canberra Community.

The Piano Competition welcomes additional sponsors for 2021.

Sponsorship including naming rights of individual sections is available from $25.

If you wish to become a sponsor for this year's competition please contact the Event Director, Di Miley on 0416719406 or di\_miley@hotmail.com. We would be grateful to receive any sponsorship or donation, large or small.

Sponsorship including naming rights of individual sections is available from $25.

Once the number of entrants is known, the final times of the sections will be published in the program - available on the website, www.nationaleisteddfod.com.au on or about the 12 August.

General rules and conditions of entry

All entrants participate according to these rules and conditions and any special conditions as may apply to individual divisions or events.

GENERAL

1. Entries must be submitted in the Stardom system (<http://www.stardom.com.au>) and accompanied by full fees or they will not be processed. Responsibility for correct entry rests with the entrant.
2. The Eisteddfod reserves the right to:
  - (a) refuse an entry;
  - (b) cancel a section (e.g. due to lack of entries);
  - (c) vary the prizes (e.g. when insufficient entries perform);
  - (d) demand proof of age of an entrant in an age section, or proof of amateur or professional status, or
  - (e) combine sections together.
3. An entrant may only enter a particular section once, except where specifically stated otherwise. The name of the partner(s) in a duo, lieder or ensemble must be included on the entry form, except for bands, orchestras, choirs and ensembles of six or more players.
4. No person may enter under a name other than his or her own. Entries are not transferable from one person to another.
5. Refunds of entry fees will be made to an entrant only if a section has been cancelled by the Eisteddfod.
6. One conductor may conduct any number of groups, and one director may present any number of groups. Age limits do not apply to conductors.
7. Entrants at Eisteddfod functions take part at their own risk. The Society does not accept responsibility for any accident or personal loss or injury, however caused.
8. Prizes, reports and original material not collected at the conclusion of the relevant division will be available for collection by arrangement with an Event Director.
9. Age, where specified for any section, shall be the age on the first day of competition of the division in which the entry is made.
10. Any entrant wishing to withdraw from a section must notify the Eisteddfod as soon as possible.
11. Late entries may be accepted at the discretion of the Eisteddfod.
12. The Australian National Eisteddfod Society will not be liable for any copyright infringement relating to the submission of photocopies. Entrants should be aware of the rules of copyright (see section 30 headed 'Copyright' below).
13. The Society reserves the right to record, film, broadcast, telecast, videotape or photograph any entrant, item or event in the Eisteddfod without notification, unless the entrant advises the Eisteddfod in advance their photo is not to be shared. Any such photograph, recording or broadcast may be used at the Eisteddfod's discretion for publicity or promotional purposes, but shall not necessarily constitute an endorsement of any entrants, and no remuneration or compensation whatsoever shall be attributable to any entrants so featured.
14. Recording of performances on video is not permitted. Photography is permitted so long as a flash is not used.
15. A high standard of behaviour is expected from all entrants and spectators. Participants and supporters must comply with the Code of Conduct.
16. Any mechanical rights which should be obtained in respect of recordings for performance is the responsibility of the performer. The Eisteddfod holds a licence issued by APRA for the live performance of published music.
17. An entrant, who during the three months preceding the opening date of the division in which he or she has entered, has been taught, coached or advised by the appointed Adjudicator of the division, shall not be eligible to compete in that division of the Eisteddfod.
18. Failure to comply with any of the foregoing rules and conditions may result in disqualification and withholding of prizes. The decision of the Eisteddfod in all questions or disputes arising out of, or not provided for, by these rules and regulations shall be final. All entries are received on this condition and in the spirit of friendly competition upon which the Australian National Eisteddfod is based, and no dispute shall become the subject of any appeal at law.

PERFORMANCE

19. Entrants should pay particular attention to neatness of appearance when appearing on stage, as this may be taken into consideration by the Adjudicator.
20. (a) No entrant may render the same item in more than one section of the Eisteddfod except where otherwise specified.

(b) No entrant, having won a section, may render the same item in the following year.

21. A copy of the music or other material to be performed in "own choice" events MUST be provided for the Adjudicator and Accompanist, unless it is a piece set by the Eisteddfod. The onus of choosing the right material for the event rests with the entrant. Suitability and degree of difficulty will be taken into consideration by the Adjudicator. The Eisteddfod does not accept responsibility for the loss of music or other material. In accordance with Copyright law, photocopies and other texts will be destroyed following the event.
22. Time limits set out in the Syllabus must be adhered to. Entrants who exceed the time limit may have marks deducted or be disqualified by the Adjudicator.
23. A teacher shall not be allowed on stage except in the capacity of an official, accompanist or conductor.
24. Prompting or assistance of any kind shall not be given to any entrant, except by the Adjudicator, who may take any contravention of this Rule into consideration in his or her adjudication.
25. Communication with the Adjudicator by entrants, teachers or other interested parties (other than in an official capacity) during a section is strictly prohibited, and the Eisteddfod reserves the right to disqualify an entrant for any breach of this rule.
26. The Adjudicator's decision shall be final.
27. Any protest shall be made in writing to the Eisteddfod within 24 hours of the completion of the relevant section. A protest can only be made by an entrant, or the entrant's teacher or parent. The decision of the Eisteddfod shall be final.
28. A copy of the Adjudicator's report will be made available free of charge at the end of each section.
29. Entrants shall not practise in the performing space for their division on the division's competition days.

PRIZES`

30. The Eisteddfod comprises competitive and non-competitive sections. The prize or award for each section is outlined in the relevant Syllabus and Stardom section description. All prizes, including highly commended, are at the discretion of the Adjudicator. In exceptional circumstances the adjudicator may award a prize jointly to more than 1 competitor with a total monetary value not exceeding the specified prize amount.

COPYRIGHT

31. The Australian National Eisteddfod Society Inc. holds an Australian Performing Rights Association (APRA) licence. An entrant may supply the adjudicator with an unlicensed copy of the piece providing that (a) the original is used by the entrant for the performance or held at the venue for inspection and (b) the Eisteddfod or its delegate destroys the copy immediately after the event.
