Special Notes about Speech & Drama:

- a. We schedule based on a thematic format, with all poetry recitals, for example, grouped on Saturday morning.
- b. The whole Eisteddfod operates on the online entry format now used by most Eisteddfods in Australia, known as “stardom”. Payments can be by Credit card or arrangements can be made for bank transfer.
- c. The programme will be available on our website <http://www.nationaleisteddfod.org.au>
- d. Please practice prepared items to fit within the time limit. The adjudicator has the right to deduct marks or stop the performance if it has run over the specified time. Going over time or requiring a prompt will not necessarily disqualify a performer from receiving a place: the overall marks will be used to determine places.
- e. Consideration should be given to the choice of material to be presented. Suitability and quality is required.
- f. Please announce the title and author of any prepared item with the following exceptions: speeches; religious readings where you are required to state the book, chapter and verses; mimes, improvisations, monologues, and group dramas where the announcer will require information in order to give you an introduction.
- g. Points will be awarded as follows: 70+ - Participation; 80+ - Eligible for Highly Commended; 85+ - Eligible for places. An adjudication only will be given if a competitor requires multiple prompts or does not complete the performance.
- h. Please register at the venue before the beginning of the session you are performing in. A clear copy of prepared items should be submitted for adjudication. Be aware that photocopies will be destroyed.
- i. Any sets used in group dramas or monologues must be placed on the stage by the competitor/s and one other person only. Don't forget to strike (clear away) your set at the end.
- j. All ANE General Rules and Conditions apply to this Division.
- k. All prizes will be announced in the program. Generally, 1st, 2nd and 3rd place medals and Highly Commended Certificates will be awarded for individual and duet performances, and framed certificates for larger groups.
